URGES OUSTER OF U. S. EXPERT ON RUSSIANS

Sen. Dodd Asks Probe of Information Agency

BY JOSEPH HEARST

(Chicago Tribune Press Service)

Washington, Sept. 8—A demand for a congressional investigation of the United States information agency and the dismissal of one of its Russian experts was made in the Senate today by Sen. Thomas J. Dodd [D., Conn.].

The man Dodd wants fired is Dr. Ralph K. White, chief of the soviet bloc division of USIA's office of research and analysis. Dodd told the Senate a speech Dr. White made recently before the American Psychological association convention disclosed the doctor as unfit to "occupy a vital position in our cold war command."

Dodd said Dr. White advanced the theme that Americans are not too different from Communists and feels Americans are too inclined to look upon the Communists leaders as villains and that we over-estimate their evil.

"Killed 20 Million"

"Here is a group of men in Moscow who have deliberately murdered 20 million people, thru planned starvation, thru assassination, thru mass executions, thru the slow living death of concentration camps and slave labor camps," Dodd said. "Here is a group of men who have enslaved 1 million human beings and turned them into faceless cogs in the communist machine; men who have waged systematic warfare upon the basic tenets of our religious and philosophical heritage, men who will embrace any evil if it advances the communist cause. In the face of this what can be said for a division chief in our USIA who feels we overestimate the evil of our enemies?"

Recalls Germ Warfare Charge

The senator said he wondered if Dr. White believed the Russian charges against us of waging germ warfare.

were made in good faith, and if the doctor believed the Communists were acting in good faith when "they broke more than 1,000 solemn treaties they
